

DRESS CODE

All clothing worn to school-sponsored functions must be neat, clean and modest. Any clothing that has been altered in any way to change the original appearance will not be considered in compliance with the dress code.

Normal School Day Attire

Lansing Catholic's Dress Code is provided by Educational Outfitters (Lansing, MI) All students must be in Educational Outfitters or Lands' End purchased clothing (pants and shirts).

Young women may wear the following:

- Skirt – plaid, black or khaki (hemmed to the knee)
- Pants – khaki or black
- Polo shirts – navy blue, light blue or white embroidered with school logo
- Oxford shirts – light blue or white embroidered with school logo

Young men may wear the following:

- Pants – khaki or black
- Polo shirts – navy blue, light blue or white embroidered with school logo
- Oxford shirts – light blue or white embroidered with school logo

Additionally, young men and women may wear solid colored sweaters, school-issued fleece jackets or vests (purchased exclusively at the school Spirit Shop) Beginning with the 2008-09 school year, school-issued sweatshirts will no longer be allowed during the school day.

Young men and young women should follow the following rules pertaining to dress code:

- uniform shirts MUST be worn under sweaters, and all school-issued fleeces;
- male students must wear a belt everyday.

Accessories & Footwear

Students may wear jewelry of their choice with the following exceptions:

- gang paraphernalia
- wallet chains
- overly large or otherwise distracting
- large purses or backpacks may not be carried to classes, they should be stowed in lockers

Students have the choice of footwear with the following exceptions:

- flip-flop shoes
- athletic sandals
- bedroom slippers
- outdoor boots

In order to protect the floor in the gymnasium, shoes used for athletic or extracurricular activities in the gym must not be worn for any other purpose.

Socks and hosiery are not required, however leg warmers, leggings & footless tights are not acceptable.

Dress Up Attire

Dress up attire is reserved for all-school Mass days. The purpose of this attire is to demonstrate respect, therefore, the modesty rule will be strictly enforced.

Specifically, on a dress up day, young men must wear a shirt and tie on dress up days or be in uniform. Young women may wear sweaters or blouses, blazers, knee length or longer skirts or dress slacks for Mass, or be in uniform.

Dress Down Attire (all half-days unless that day is designated as a Mass day, and other days announced by the administrator)

This attire must comply with normal day dress with the following exceptions:

- students may wear any shirt that is clean, modest and neat (no clothing that is torn, cut, patched or over/under-sized, halter or tank tops).
- students may wear denim jeans or warm-up pants (no distracting designs).
- students may wear hats or bandanas but teachers reserve the right to have headwear removed during class.
